

A clever link for small business

Illawarra small and home-based businesses will benefit from the launch of a free online training program run by Corrimal technology service provider CleverLink.

It's been estimated 700 businesses will benefit from the program containing 70 courses, being run across the region over the next 12 months.

By participating, businesses have the opportunity to increase their web presence and enable them to confidently engage in eBusiness strategies.

Advertiser 16/6/10

■ Info: www.cleverlinktraining.com.au